Dear Holy and Beloved Children of God,

Happy New Year, we are off to a new start, with new desired goals, with determination to see them through, remember to be gracious to yourself and others. "An Attitude of Gratitude Will Change Your Attitude"

I have this written on one of my "Clouds of Wisdom" in my office, where I will see it every time, I look out the window. I have started practicing this, as a life long goal, to help lift my spirits when things do not look so great, or I am feeling bummed, when things do not go my way. I have a very long list of people, things, and times to be grateful for, many of them I have taken for granted. I am grateful to have a warm home, an amazing husband, who is trying to grow his angel wings. Family and friends who love me just as I am. I am ever grateful to be fulfilling God's calling, with an amazing church family. "O give thanks to the Lord, for God is good; for God's steadfast love endures forever." Psalm 107:1

It seems we allow ourselves to get caught by the negative things we hear in the news or that flash though our minds, to where we do not see the blessings surrounding us. If I could give each of you a goal for the coming year it would be to work on having an attitude of gratitude. To open your eyes and ears to see and hear how God has so richly blessed you, start with what you have taken for granted. When you are complaining about the cold, give thanks for your warm home and indoor plumbing, not everyone is so blessed. When you are frustrated with someone, be grateful you have someone in your life who frustrates you. You get it.

I can almost guarantee if we are willing to try having an attitude of gratitude, our attitudes will change, we will start to see the blessings surrounding us, and it becomes easier to push through the negative. All it requires is the desire to see the world through the eyes of being blessed. Join me as we work to have an Attitude of Gratitude, for it will change our attitudes. We will find it easier to follow Jesus's command to love our neighbors as we love ourselves.

May we all have a blessed 2026
Pastor Terry

Although the year-end numbers aren't yet in, the food shelf helped tens of thousands of people in the community suffering from food insecurity. New Salem recently provided three cows to the food shelf. What a blessing for the clients to have access to ground beef.

Welcome to the new Executive Director, Jennifer Aakre! We're excited to see where her leadership and experience take the food shelf in the New Year.

How about a New Year's resolution to give back what we've so freely been given? Join the fun at one of these shifts:

Churches United

“Welcoming the stranger as Jesus.”

Churches United of Bemidji was first organized in 2002, when a number of clergy and lay persons came together to address the city-wide problem of the numerous low-income and homeless people and families who were frequenting the churches of Bemidji in need of financial assistance. As a result, after numerous meetings and discussions, it was decided that if all the various churches could come together we might find a way to pool our resources and therefore become more effective in assisting the poor. This, we all agreed, would also relieve pastors and church staff from the often time-consuming task of having to deal with those in need by referring them to a central location where trained volunteers and staff could be of greater help than we could accomplish by acting alone. Since that time, with the support of the many community churches, Churches United has successfully achieved our goal and continues to this day to be a place “where ministry happens” as we work cooperatively to “welcome the stranger as Jesus”.

New Salem Lutheran has supported Churches United since its beginning and continues to be a strong partner.

Churches United is currently looking for individuals who are willing to donate 1-4 hours per month to helping in the office. Activities volunteers may be involved in include: greeting individuals as they come in, interviewing clients, photocopying, data entry, filing, donations inventory, fetching items from the backroom to meet client needs, and more. There is something for everyone and no need for everyone to do everything.

A love for people and a desire to make a difference are the main requirements. If you are interested, contact the director by stopping into the office business hours or calling and leaving a message anytime. Churches United is open from Noon to 4, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Through the various services it provides, Churches United assists impoverished people and people experiencing homelessness. There are specific areas in which you can help Churches United transform the lives of those Churches United serves.

1. Financial Support: Churches United relies upon financial contributions from its participant churches to provide these diverse services but contributions from individuals are also quite important. Churches United accepts donations year round (cash or check). Note: All donations are tax deductible.
2. Volunteering: Churches United is open and continuing to follow COVID 19 protocols. We ask for just four (4) hours of your time per month. We have a job for you, no matter what your skill set is. If you like helping people, greeting people, filing paperwork, data entry, or just organizing the office; we have a job for you.

Winter is here, please help us provide for the needs of our homeless neighbors.

Please call 218-444-1380 to be sure that we are open, before coming to our office.
